Dr. Delbert Baker
President of Oakwood College

Oakwood, Destiny, and the 21st Century

Each day the Oakwood Experience is lived out in the lives of its 1,800 plus students. That experience is all about education in its fundamental sense of learning academically, developing socially, and growing spiritually. It is about the excellence of students, faculty, and staff stretching to the limit of being all it is possible to be; of being the best person in terms of thoughtfulness, self-development, and life-long learners.

The Oakwood Experience is also about the eternity perspective, meaning that the Oakwood graduate lives a productive life here and now, but she/he lives simultaneously with an eye on the hereafter. It is about personal, spiritual growth—prayer, Bible study, and personal witnessing. It is all about service to God and to others.

Do these goals sound idealistic? Do they appear larger than life? Do they feel a bit challenging for the space of a few years? We hop so. You see, Oakwood is committed to the pursuit of high and lofty goals. For more than 100 years, Oakwood has been re-inventing itself to these very concepts.

Oakwood was transformed from an industrial school to training school, to a junior college, to a four-year liberal arts college. Now, we are studying the notion of becoming a university. Yet, through it all, Oakwood has remained wedded to the task of developing lives for service here and now, and for eternity. So our goals must be challenging; they must stretch us; they must cause us to constantly refresh our vision and refocus on outcomes.

It is said that the mind is formed to an astonishing degree by the act of inventing and censoring itself. So it is with Oakwood. Each generation, while committed to the core values and principles, must reinvent the plot line and recommit itself to the high and noble future. As we approach the 21st century, we once again accept the challenge and move onto the daunting and lofty destiny before us.

USM PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE 1998-99

Debleaire K. Snell

The 1998-99 school year has simply been one to remember. This year's active student body combined with a dynamic Administration proved to be a winning combination. From the very inception of the year I knew that it would be a special one. We had a group of USM officers that was like no other. They were an extremely gifted group, full of life, energy, and EGO. This year's senate was unique as well. They worked with an unparalleled sense of purpose, and provided a proper check and balance system as they worked in conjunction with the Executive Cabinet.

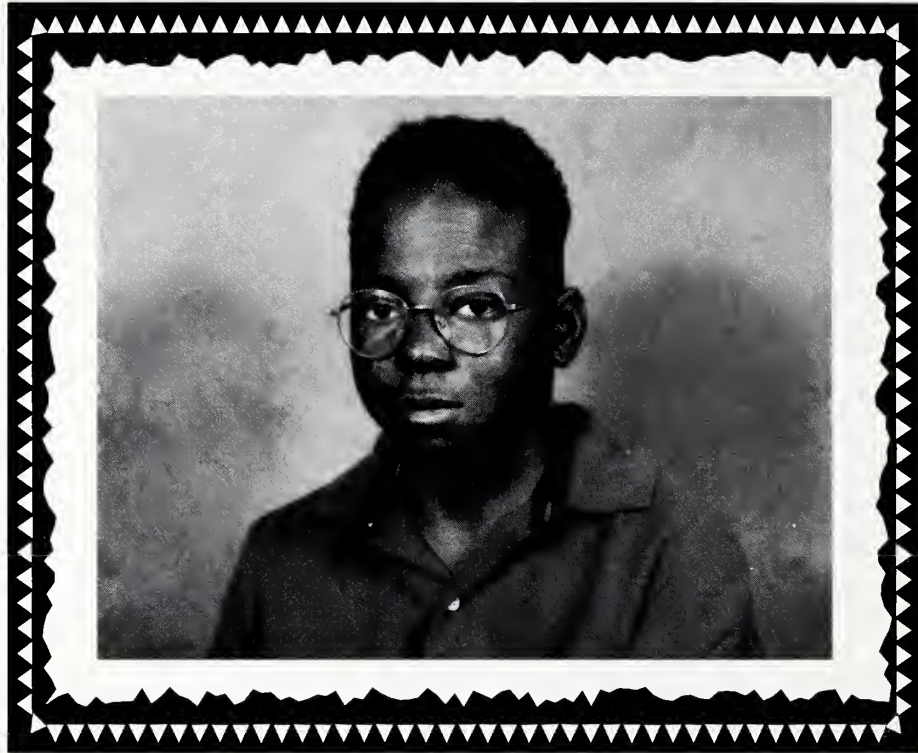

This year's theme was "WE ARE FAMILY." This theme was chosen as a means of creating a sense of unity among a diverse student body here at Oakwood. This theme and the propagation of it drew us closer one to another as brothers and sisters in Christ. The family atmosphere that once existed was revived and now lives on the campus of Oakwood College. We also grew together spiritually. The office of the Religious VP worked harmoniously with the College Church and the College Chaplain to create need-based spiritual programs that served as instruments of edification for our campus. Socially, to put it simply, we had a good time. Consistent and meaningful. Thursday and Saturday night events allowed us to come together and recreate.

Yes, this year has been one to remember. As the year draws nigh unto its conclusion I look back with no regrets, but confident that the Lord was with us the entire way. I look to the future of this institution as being bright-a future full of progress and prosperity. Under the guidance of the unseen hand of God, I know that this place called "Oakwood College" will grow and continue to produce the young Men and Women that will serve humanity until the return of our Lord.

Debleaire K. Snell
98-99 USM President

In Memorium

Then He who sat on the throne said, "Behold I make all things new."
And He said to me, "Write, for these words are true and faithful."

R. Cameron Dawkins

MARCH 4, 1978-OCTOBER 12, 1998

Cameron was born a few weeks after things returned to normal following the blizzard of 1978. He chose to be born the night he was due, but in typical Cameron fashion, he made a grand entrance during the storm and had to be pulled from his mother. He just would not turn around and do what was expected of him. This would be a theme repeated throughout his life.

It was not long before he began to demonstrate that he was a perpetual motion machine. a wiggle worm of the highest order. Everything had to be fast or loud. Nothing was too great of a challenge. From early childhood he was a regular jock. No sport was off limits to Cameron.

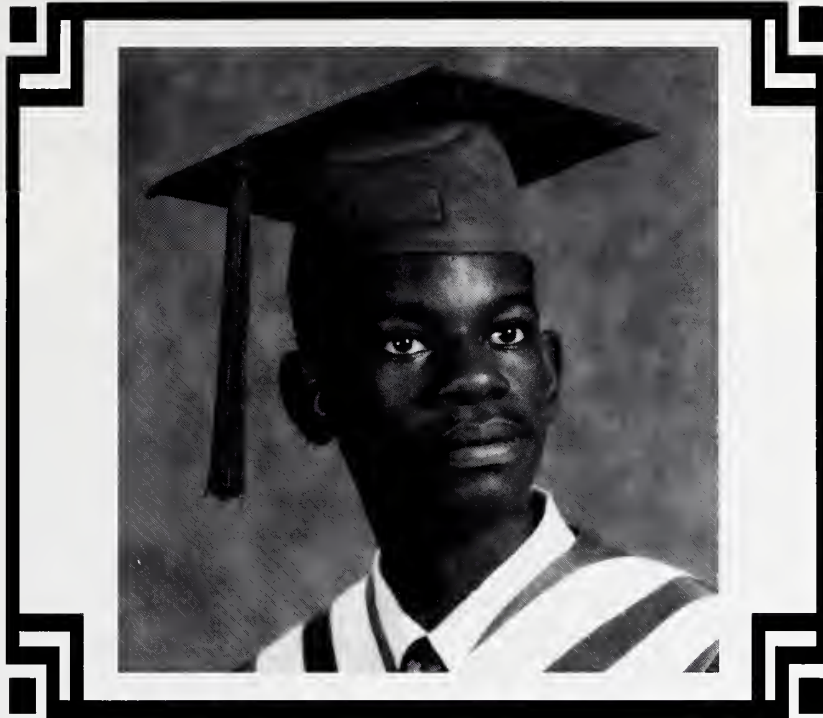

Cameron loved music from an early age. He asked his mother if he could learn to play the violin at the age of four. Eventually, he became a good violinist. He also studied under Janet Packer in Cambridge, MA, and under her instruction he became a member of the Greater Boston Youth Symphony Orchestra.

He loved people, especially little people. He was great with kids and naturally inquisitive; never shy about asking questions or figuring out complex problems. Cameron never understood why he was ill but it never stopped him from living life to his limits.

Cameron attended Browning Elementary School and South Lancaster Academy in Lancaster, MA until 10th grade. He transferred to Nashoba Regional High and graduated in 1996. He attended Worcester State College during 1996 and transferred to Oakwood College in 1997. He was a student at Oakwood College at the time of his death. The text in the Bible that gave him comfort and encouragement through his illness was James 1. In return he frequently encouraged and advised others whom he felt needed comfort.

Excerpt of Cameron's Life Sketch
by Ralph Dawkins

In Loving Memory

Benjamin Kerr

January 27, 1979-July 15, 1998

Benjamin Kerr was born Mohammed Josiah on January 27, 1979 in Balham, London, England, to Louise Innes and Fredrick Josiah. He was the third of nine children. Very early in his life, Ben was fostered, along with Sabreena and Mario, by Bert and Lilly Forman. Ben spent the first four years of life with the Formans. They were happy years for Ben. In 1983, with Mario and Sabreena, Ben became part of the Kerr family. At that time they did not know it but the Kerrs were to become their parents by adoption. It was in his new home that Ben, Mario, and Sabreena came to know Jesus. Ben soon requested a name change. He was no longer 'Mohammed' but Benjamin Kerr, after his hero, Dr. Benjamin Carson.

Ben attended Oakwood College in Huntsville, Alabama. By April he had completed his second year, with the intention of majoring in biochemistry. It was his dream to follow in Ben Carson's footsteps as a doctor. Sadly this was not to be. Ben was killed in an automobile accident on Wednesday, July 15, 1998. Ben was a loving and lovable person and will be greatly missed.

D.E.E.P. AT OAKWOOD

Diversity Education Exchange Program

Diversity. It was truly a new experience for each of the students and the campuses they visited. We were truly enriched by their presence and will remember it for eternity.

Joey and Braden share a moment under one of the trees here on campus. The two were engaged while here during first semester.

Amanda smiles for the camera though inside she's not all smiles. At least she'll have the memories from her semester here at Oakwood.

Steve stops for a picture as he takes one last look at Oakwood's campus.

Carter Hall

Carter Hall or South Central, seems to be the place of choice for certain male species regardless of race, age, education, or religion. Yet, these magnificent young ladies who command so much attention also provide also a special kind of energy, beauty and vitality each year that cannot be disputed. Who are they? They are Oakwood's Ladies of Carter Hall.

Hangout central. Actually this is not really representing.

The Creme of the Crop: Oakwood's Freshmen Women

Girl, don't you know that the radiator can do the same job free of charge! If ya didn't know, now ya know.

Ms. Jackson, now you know you shouldn't be showing private files to Sabah and company. That's how stuff gets started.

Wade Hall

Dorm Life

Wade Hall the upper classman women's dormitory, symbolizes the beauty and refinement of the Oakwood woman.

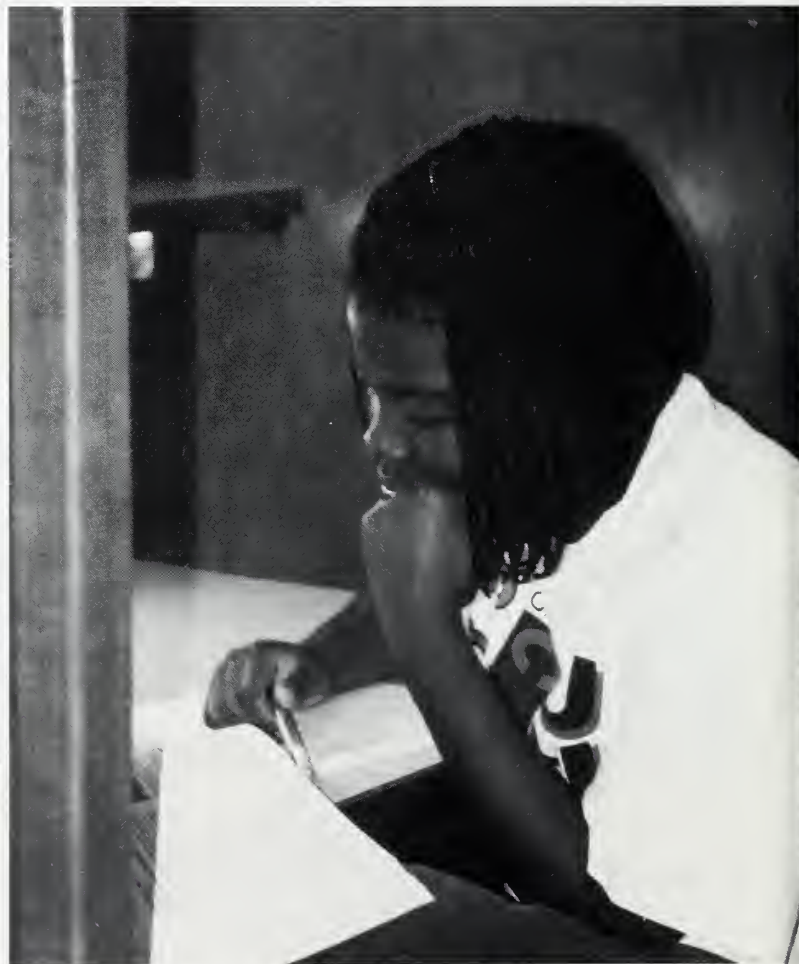

On any given night, one can wonder into this auspicious building and find studious women in pursuit of academic excellence.

And as you can see this is very obvious!

Another work of art!

You can literally see the knowledge flowing from the book to her brain! Osmosis man!

What an incredible work of art!

"Yeah, what do we have for homework? Oh, it was due to-day?!"

Work those fingers girl!

Cunningham Hall

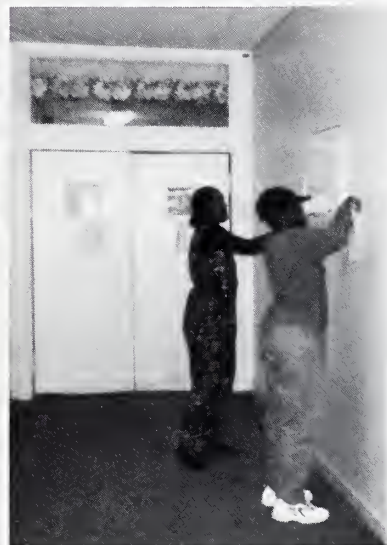

No wonder folks won't leave
Cunningham; they get the the room
all to themselves!

What a beautiful smile. Aren't those receptionists special!

BJ and Sonjanne exhibit the Oakwood Woman pose.

These sisters take to the all important task of posting USM announcements. Maybe?

Watch as the mail clerk embezzles or rather sorts those all important FedEx packages. What an awesome responsibility!

Peterson

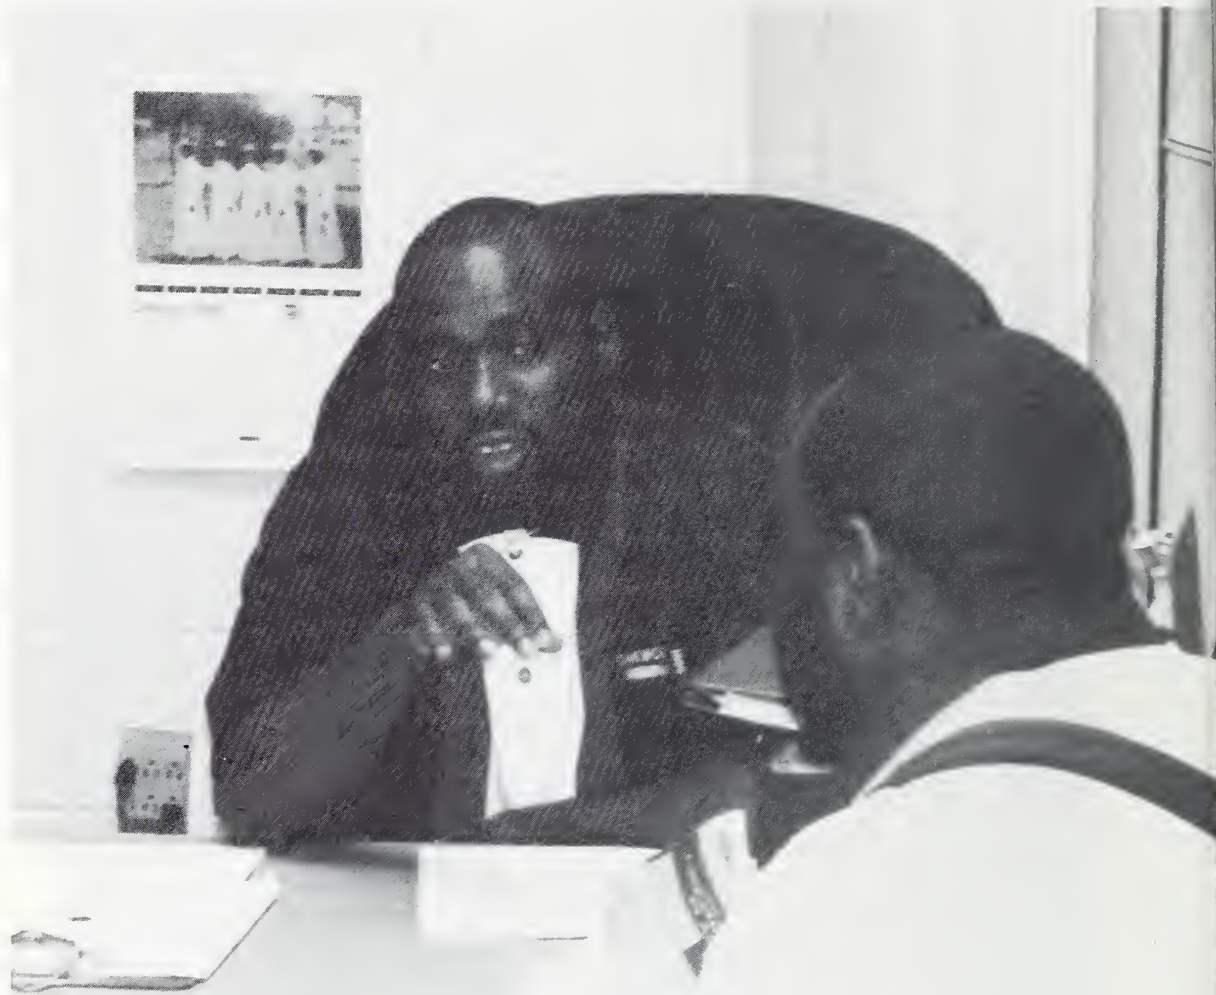

If you are trying to focus in on this picture, don't bother. This is actually the way these boys live. If you ever wondered what Peterson projects looked like from the inside, here it is. This building really lives up to it's name. THE PROJECTS!

Hall

EDWARD'S HALL

Dean Butler of Edward's Hall breaks it down to one of his residents, David. Deans were available for conference at the request of the students.

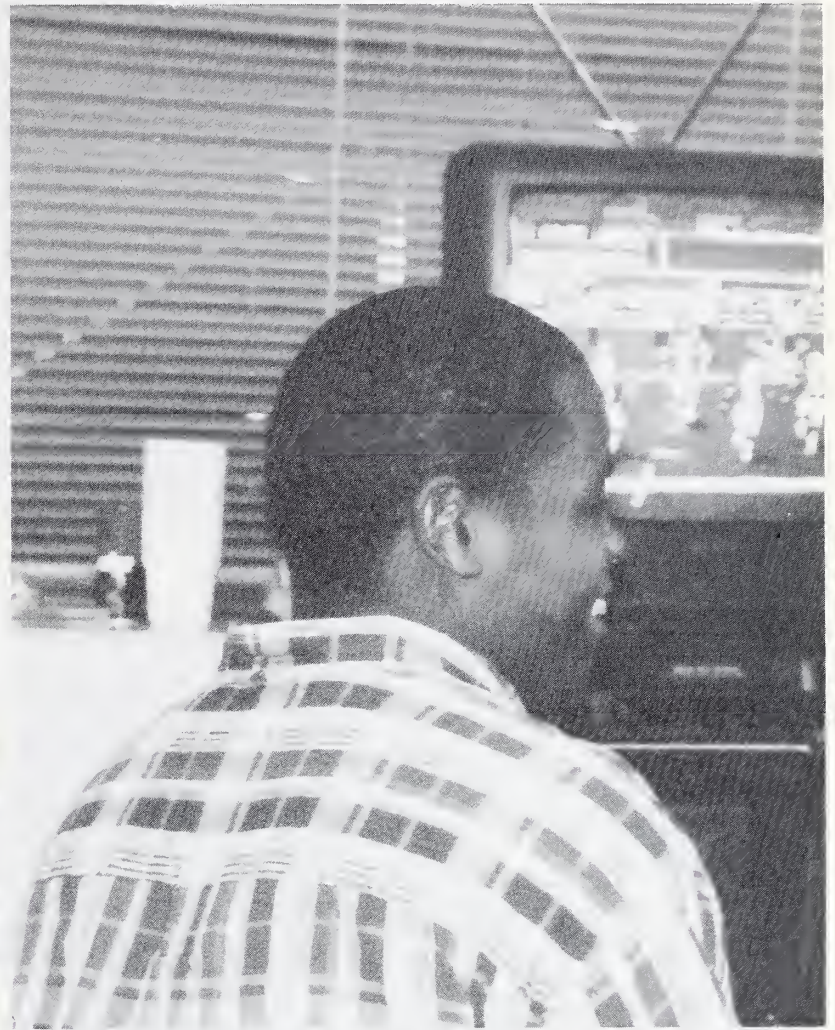

Dorm room walls were adorned with anything from pictures to flags from different countries as shown here in Rayford's room at Edwards.

An Edward's Hall resident pulls something from his ever so "compact" closet.

Osmond Marcellin engages in a late night snack in his room at Edwards. Its a wonder he's hungry when the cafe serves such delicious, filling food...

Chris Bailey and friend enjoy a common passtime amongst college students... the T.V. Sports were the most commonly watched programs at Edward's Hall.

Seneca shares the word with another Edwards' resident. Dorm rooms provided ideal opportunities for Bible study.

College Days

Which way to the girls?

Is this the food line?

Bring on the fun!

We love Oakwood College.

This year Oakwood decided to do something a little different. Instead of the college days students performing, the student of Oakwood College put on a concert for them. Many groups performed.

This is the group Joy doing their first performance of the year.

Kathleen Lewis gave a wonderful piano solo.

We were also blessed with the voices of As One (above) and One Accord (below)

Lee Bulgin gave a trumpet solo.

The new Positive Images.

Each year the college men and women battle the men and women that came for college days.

Here we have the men. They got stomped by the college days men.

We have some bystanders that are really into the game.

The ladies are doing really well. They prevailed over the college days women.

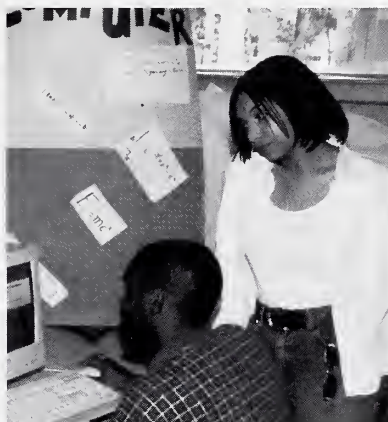

They look like they are having a lot of fun!

The college days students were invited to go to the Departmental Fair in the gym.

All of the departments were represented there.

It's that time again, time to go.

We hope you enjoyed your stay here and we hope to see you next fall.

This isn't Nagano and it's definately not Atlanta but these seasoned athletes are just as spririted and driven. It's the Olympics on a smaller scale. A chance to see what Oakwood athletes are truly made of: The Mini Olym-pics.

Amazing Lee Bulgin demonstrates s amazing balancing abilities: no hands

I hope he doesn't hit me in the face with that thing , thinks Myron Edmonds.

Dr. Newborne came out to enjoy the events.

Jason is preparing to throw the disc for one of the events.

Byron naps and dreams of winning medals, honor and fame - NOT!

It's Camille Warren as the MC for the Olympics. Show us that smile, Camille!

A quick break then back to the action.

■ ■ ■ ■ Students ■ ■ ■ ■ Of The Week

Vincent Frasier

The following students have been recipients of Student of the Week awards up until January 26, 1999. We apologize that those students who will receive the award in the upcoming months will not be recognized in this yearbook. Their names and pictures, however, will be printed in the Spreading Oak. The criteria of Selection of the Student of the Week is Faculty as well as student recommendations. The award is called the Espudios Award. It is a Greek word for climber, one who is continually striving toward an attainable goal. Too often awards are given to those who excel only in academics. the purpose of this award is to highlight that student who also excels in character. Two thumbs go up for the 98-99 student of the week Award recipients.

SUCCESS TALK

THE CLINTON SCANDEL UNDER DISCUSSION

President introduces the topic for discussion-the Bill Clinton/Monica Lewinsky situation. He discusses whether or not the President should be impeached or simply censored.

The Success Talk included participation from a special panel of Oakwood affiliates including USM President, head of the Religion Department, professors, and others.

Julien is anxious to share his philosophy on the whole Clinton situation, responding to the question of how Clinton should be punished for his behavior.

Anjanene Ware read the scripture prior to the Success Talk to add a spiritual atmosphere to the discussion.

Ramir answered the invitation by the President for individual comments on the Clinton situation.

A Hallelujah Good Time

Angelo and Veronica Live in Concert

Recording artist, Angelo and Veronica allow the Holy Spirit to use them as they sing from their hearts.

We invite your presence, Holy Spirit. Veronica bows her head as she asks the Spirit to enter the AY service.

Veronica takes time out to talk to students after the concert. She was more than willing to answer questions asked of her.

Clap our hands! Keotisha Oguiste, Evelyn Adams, and others clapped their hands in worship.

President Delbert Baker expresses his appreciation for Angelo and Veronica, along with their son, e coming to share their musical talent with the Oakwood College family.

Angelo and Veronica reach out to the crowd as he lays hands on an Oakwood student after making a stirring appeal to accept Christ

Angelo and Veronica extend their voices as they minister through song.

Oh, make a joyful noise. Oakwood Students respond to the music with smiles and hand clapping.

The sultry sounds of the married singing duo, Angelo and Veronica, permeated the Skating Rink one Friday night at Adventist Youth Society. The contemporary Christian style of the recording artists were welcomed by Oakwood students. From the soothing sounds of "The Only Way You Know" to the uplifting beats of "Doing It Right," Oakwood was deeply touched.

Close to the conclusion of the program, the singing sensations made an appeal for students to totally submit their lives to Christ. Several students, led by the Spirit, responded to the call by going up front for special prayer.

It was certainly a soul stirring concert that left the Oakwood audience both blessed and encouraged.

The audience really enjoyed the concert. They couldn't stay in their seats. Look at those three at the end of the pew. I bet they knew every song.

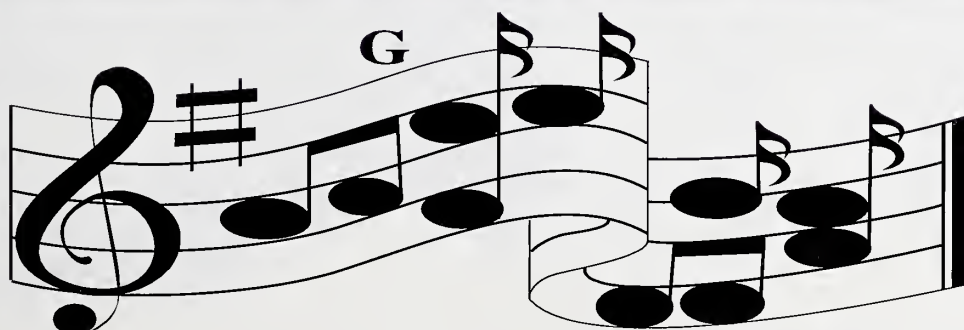

Larnell Harris

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord...

All in Favor Say I !

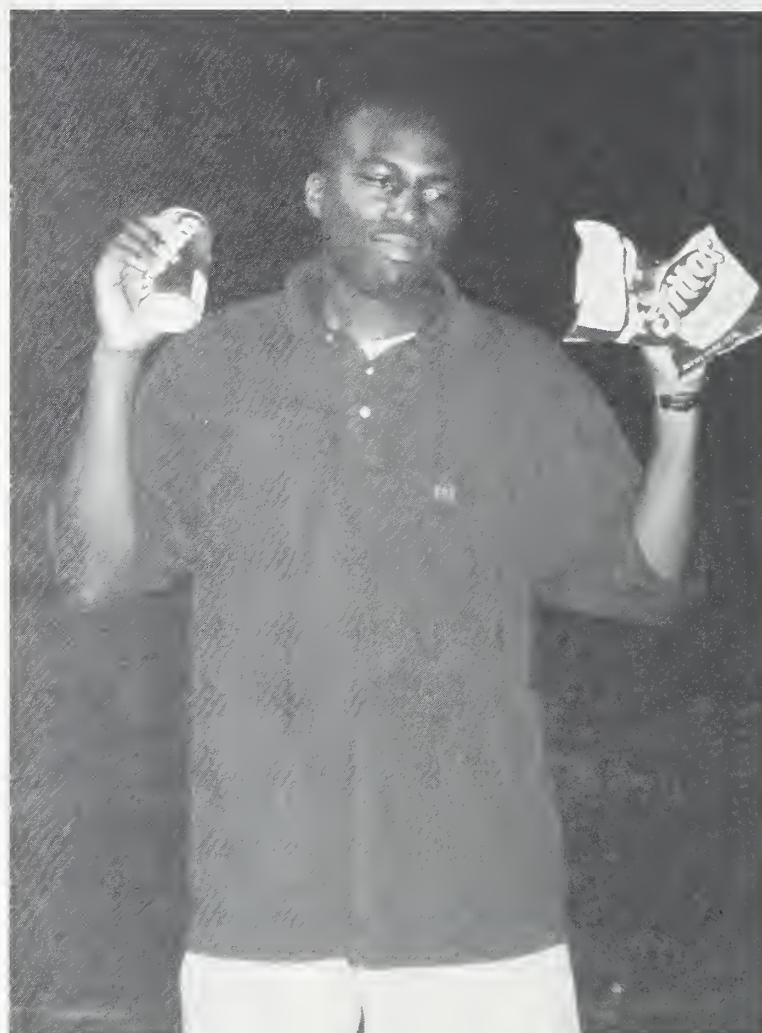

Oakwood College Church was filled to capacity when recording artist Larnell Harris blessed us with his beautiful voice. College students, academy student, elementary students and the community were all in attendance. He performed many selections including the audience's favorite "All in favor." Larnell was accompanied by Mark Payne. He really made those ivories sing. They made a wonderful team. We were blessed by their visit.

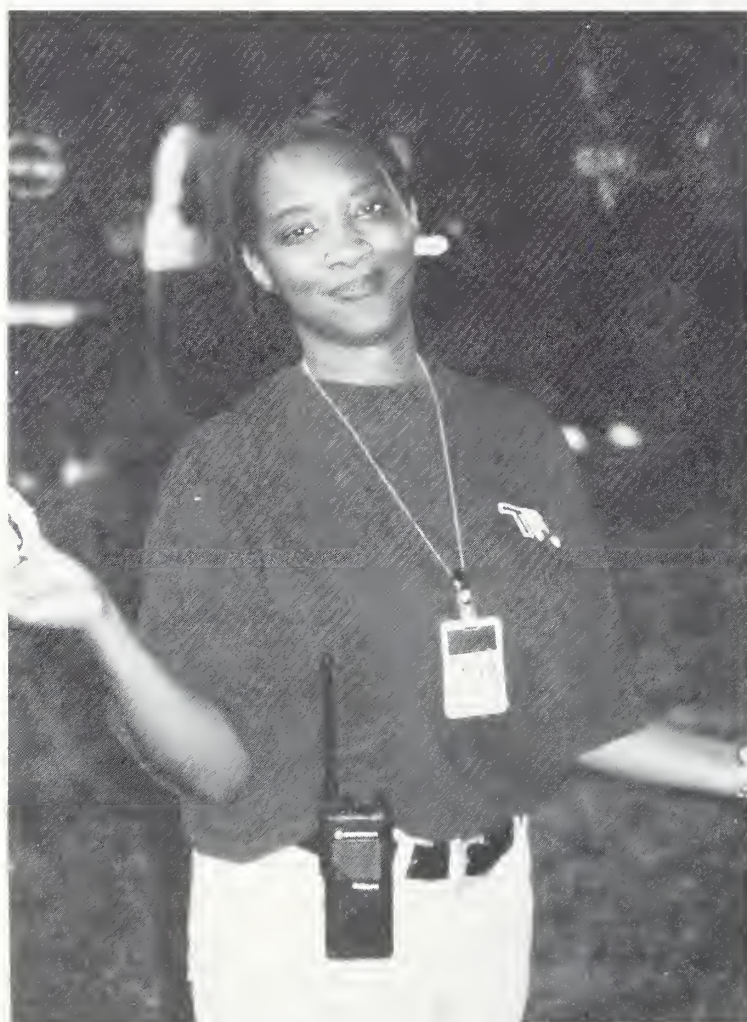

All-Night Bar-B-Q

I just don't understand why the people are so greedy!

I have two bags of chips, one for me and one for Candi!

Task Force knows how to have fun too.

Sorry Belina, had to set you up!

The Newborns were enjoying themselves at the bar-b-q. They come to EVERY USM event. Now that's what I call support!

The food is good ; we just wish we could have more of it!

Did he just take our picture?

10. The 1.5-inch "snowstorm" that shut school down for a week and gave us an extended Christmas vacation.
11. The DP recording and are still waiting for the CD to come out.
12. Revelation 14 was more than a chapter in the Bible.
13. VOT was the Freshman choir and the Aeolians were just an "Oakwood College Church Choir."
14. WSB plays and concerts packed AY out every Friday night.
15. The days before Madison Mission.
16. Chris Bailey's Miracle Hand.
17. Instead of Success Talks, we had "sex talks" with the Olers every Tuesday at Chapel.
18. The only entrance to the gym was the side door.
19. Thursday night meant New York Undercover and ice cream at the Student Center.
20. The Lower level of the library was a mystery; the upper level was the "hang-out"
21. The term "Ben sightings".
22. "Boogie" as Brian McKnight's look-a-like.

"Fear thou not, for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness" (Isaiah 41:10).

This text means a lot to me. As I reflect on our sojourn here at Oakwood, I vividly remember the initial fears and anxieties that I had as I entered to learn in August of 1995. Time and space will not permit me to elaborate on them at this point. However, when you compare those initial fears with memories of God clearing mists of confusion during late night study sessions, unlocking windows of blessings during financial clearance, and opening doors of escape during moments of temptations, I know that, like me, you have a greater appreciation for this text.

Can you believe that only a few years ago we came to Oakwood like callow seeds bursting forth from the earth? Like the seedlings exposed for the first time to the rejuvenating warmth of the sun and the harsh elements of nature, we, too, were breaking new ground. Whether it was leaving protective, loving homes or readjusting to the rigors and demands of a new environment, we each broke new ground. Despite our diverse backgrounds, we were bound, in one degree or another, by the cords of inexperience and naiveté.

As we entered these halls of higher learning, we were exposed to Christian peers and professors who nurtured a supportive climate for personal growth and development. We were also exposed to the harsh elements of academic life, bureaucratic red-tape, and financial woes. Nevertheless, the refining fire of life lessons melted away the dross of immaturity.

Now, we stand as blossoming trees planted by the river of service! This portion of our growth process is complete. As trained and equipped men and women, we must never forget these years of God's faithfulness to us. As we claim God's promises, He will continue to sustain us as we press toward the mark of His high calling in Christ Jesus.

Just having fun

Some people get caught having too much fun

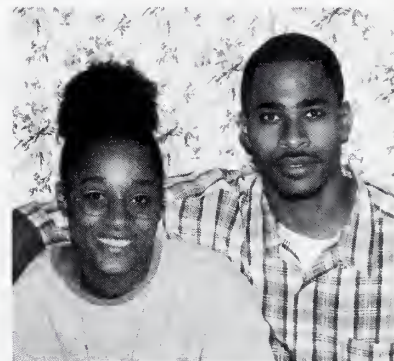

Left: Canadian Connection

Though all of them are not distinguished juniors, these Canadians don't mind sharing a little camera time.

Below: Boys just wanna have fun!!!

Can't you tell Nixon is having too much fun? He was caught play fighting and had time to make a serious pose for the camera.

Above: Smile!

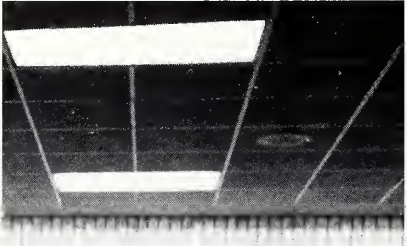

These two friends are all smiles for the camera.

For some people posing just seems to come natural. Nasheba is always ready for the camera

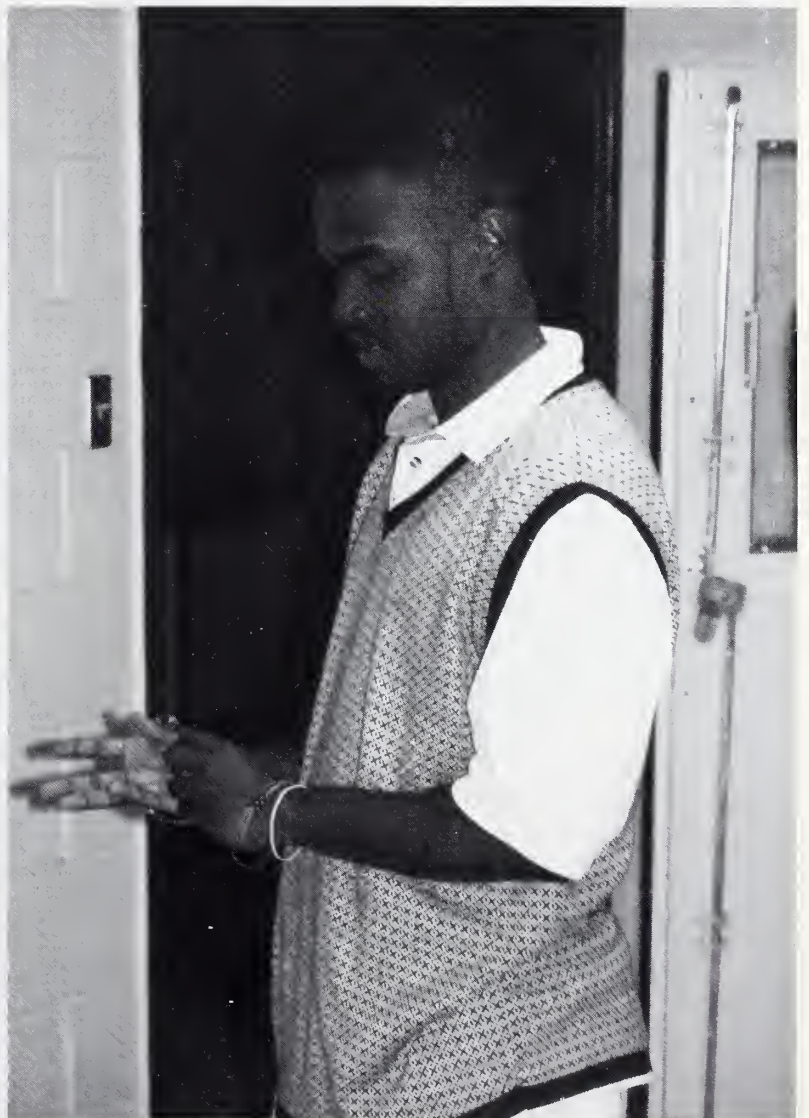

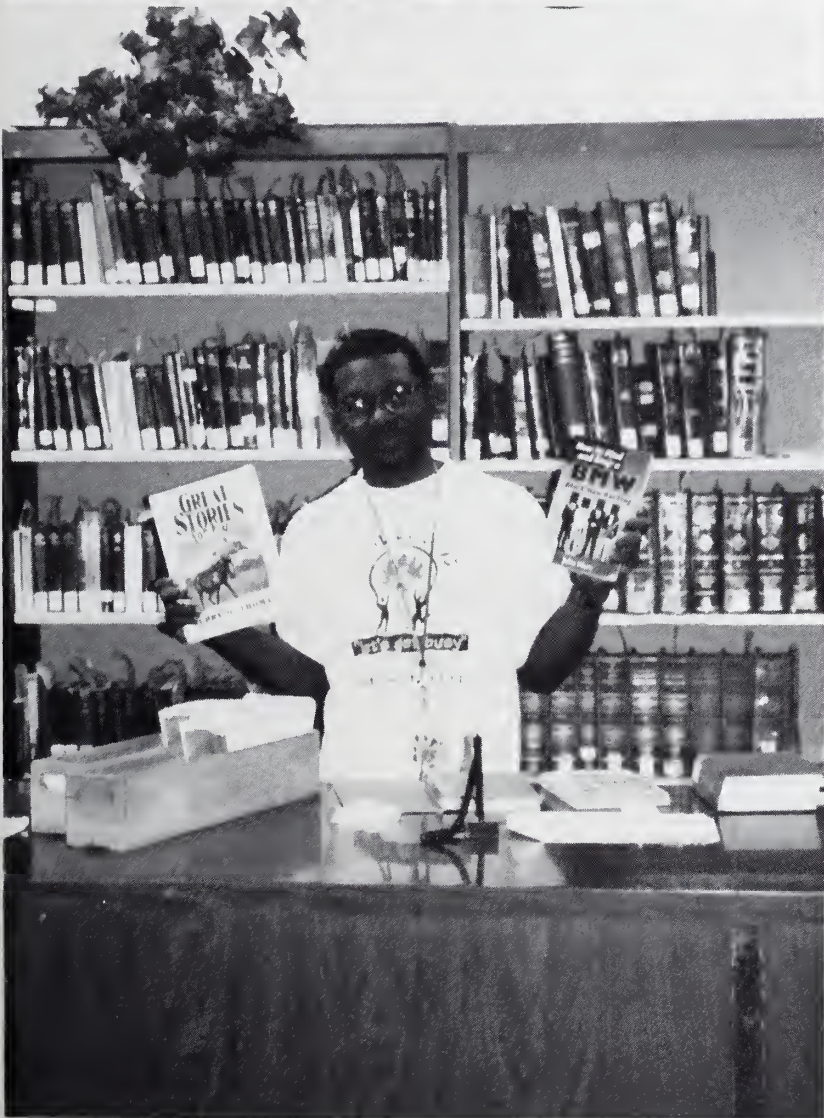

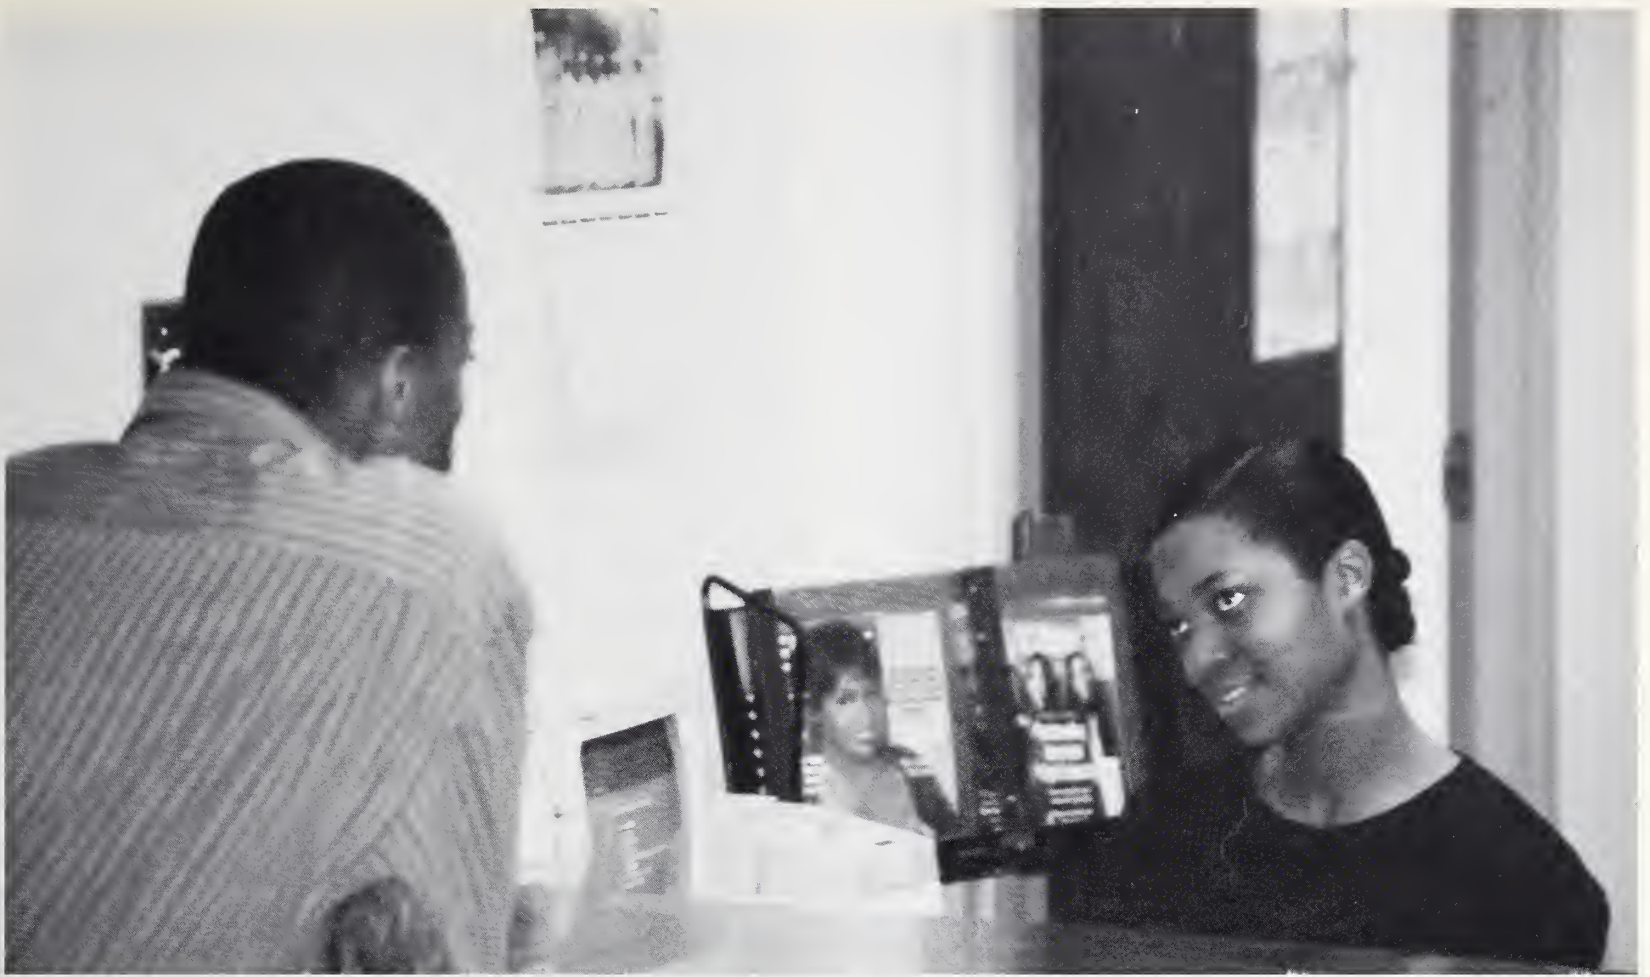

Far Left: Caught in the act!!!!

The Freshman have endured a long orientation week. They have been exposed to almost every side of Oakwood. Now it's time to see the spiritual side.

Freshman Consecration

Freshman Consecration was a moving experience. The Freshman were especially touched when the entire audience formed a prayer circle around them showing their support.

President Baker leads the congregation in prayer as the faculty stands showing their support for the Freshmen.

Donald Monroe and Anthony Rayburn respond eloquently to the challenge given to the Freshmen and Transfer Students.

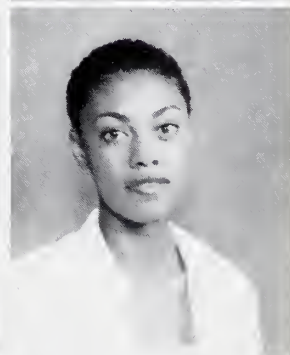

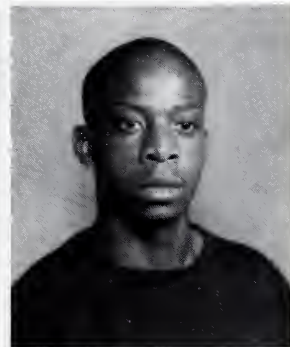

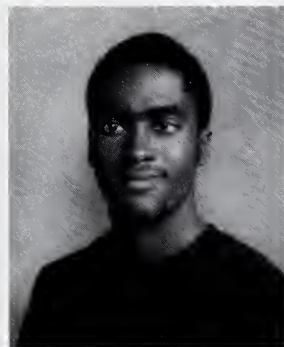

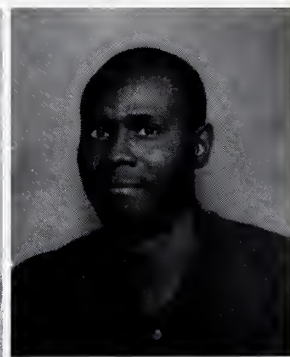

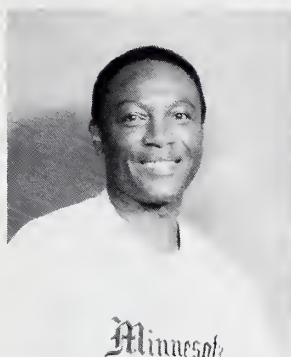

The entire Freshman class stands and sings the Oakwood College Alma Mater.

Tamela Hammond and Christine Cooper lift up the name of the Lord in song.

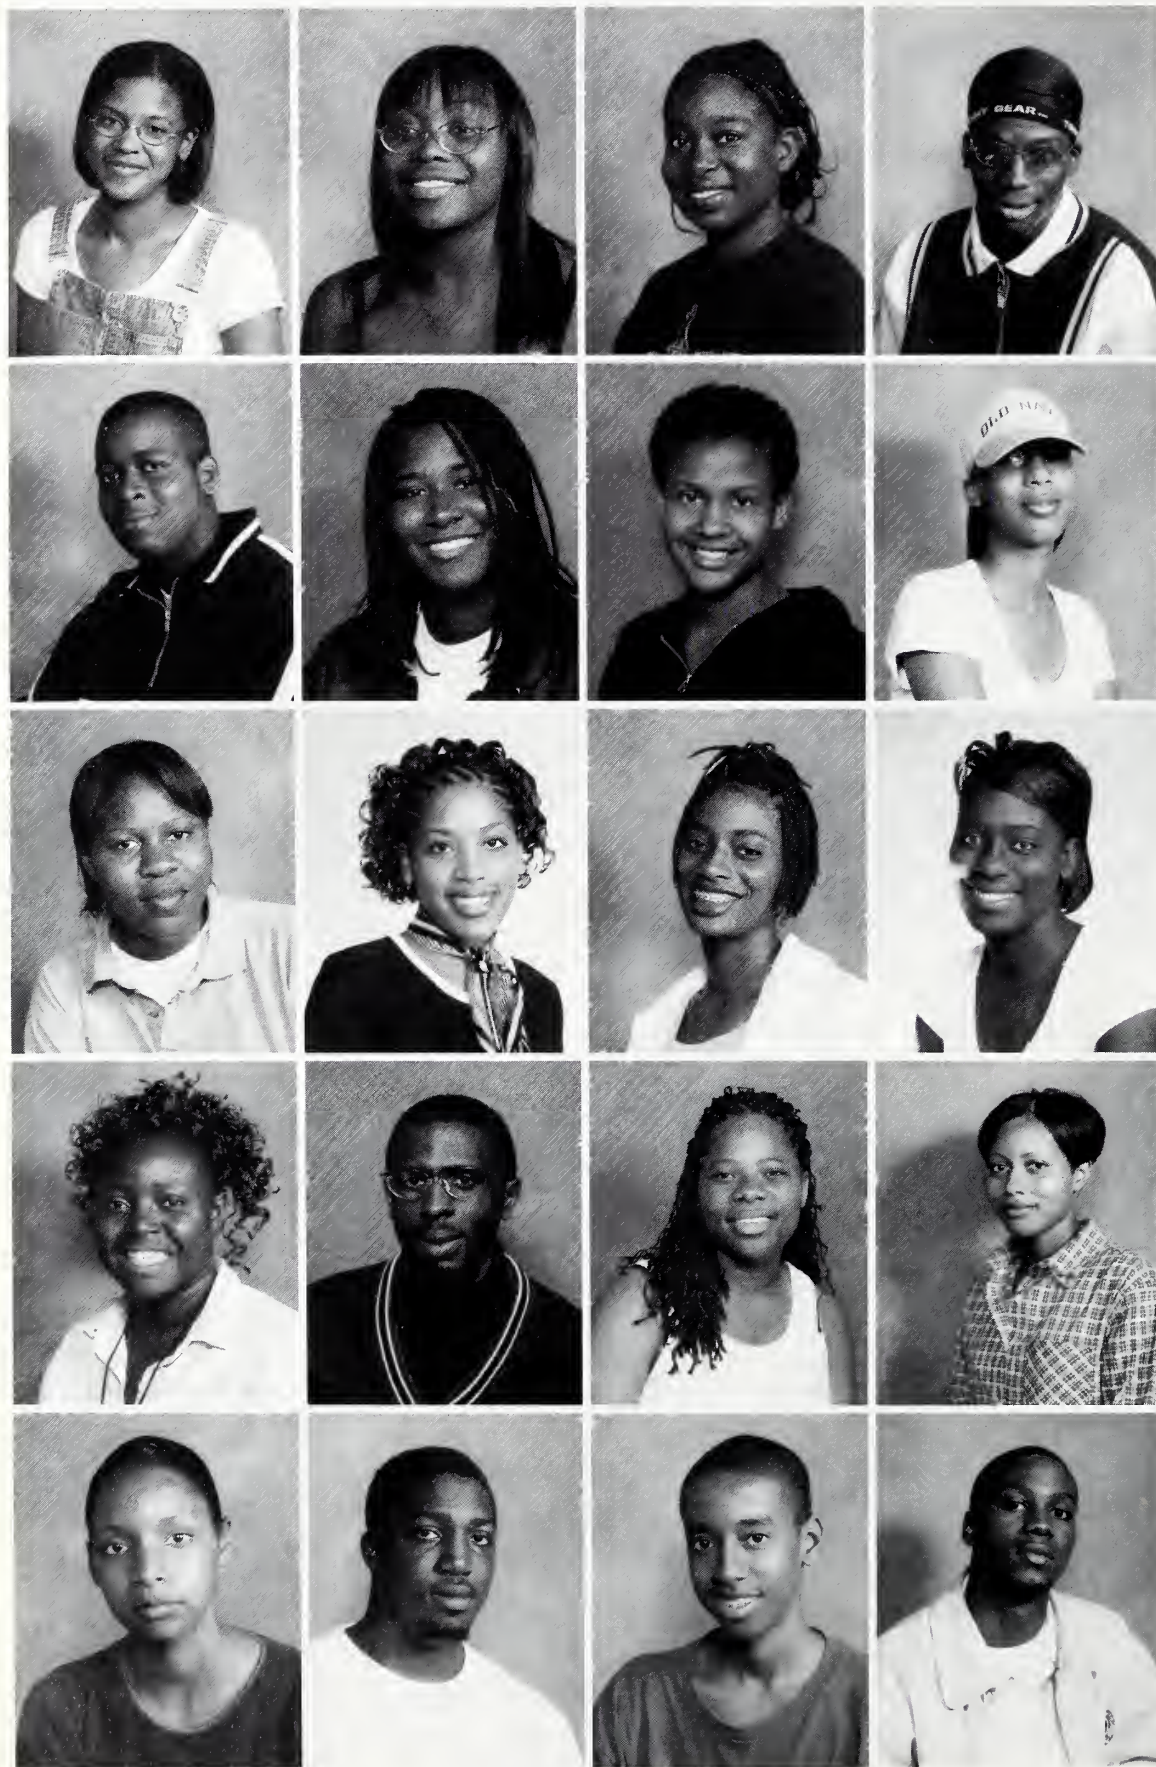

Class of ?

Who R U?

This section is dedicated to the people who really wanted to show their school spirit or be seen in the '98-'99 yearbook. They went out of their way to comb their hair, get their hair cut, dress appropriately, and make sure everything was in place just to be sure that they took a nice picture. I guess with all the stress, hustle and bustle with schoolwork and studying, they either failed to write their name legibly, stay in the order that they wrote their name, didn't leave a name, or they didn't leave any information at all. Therefore we have no idea WHO U R.

Class of ?

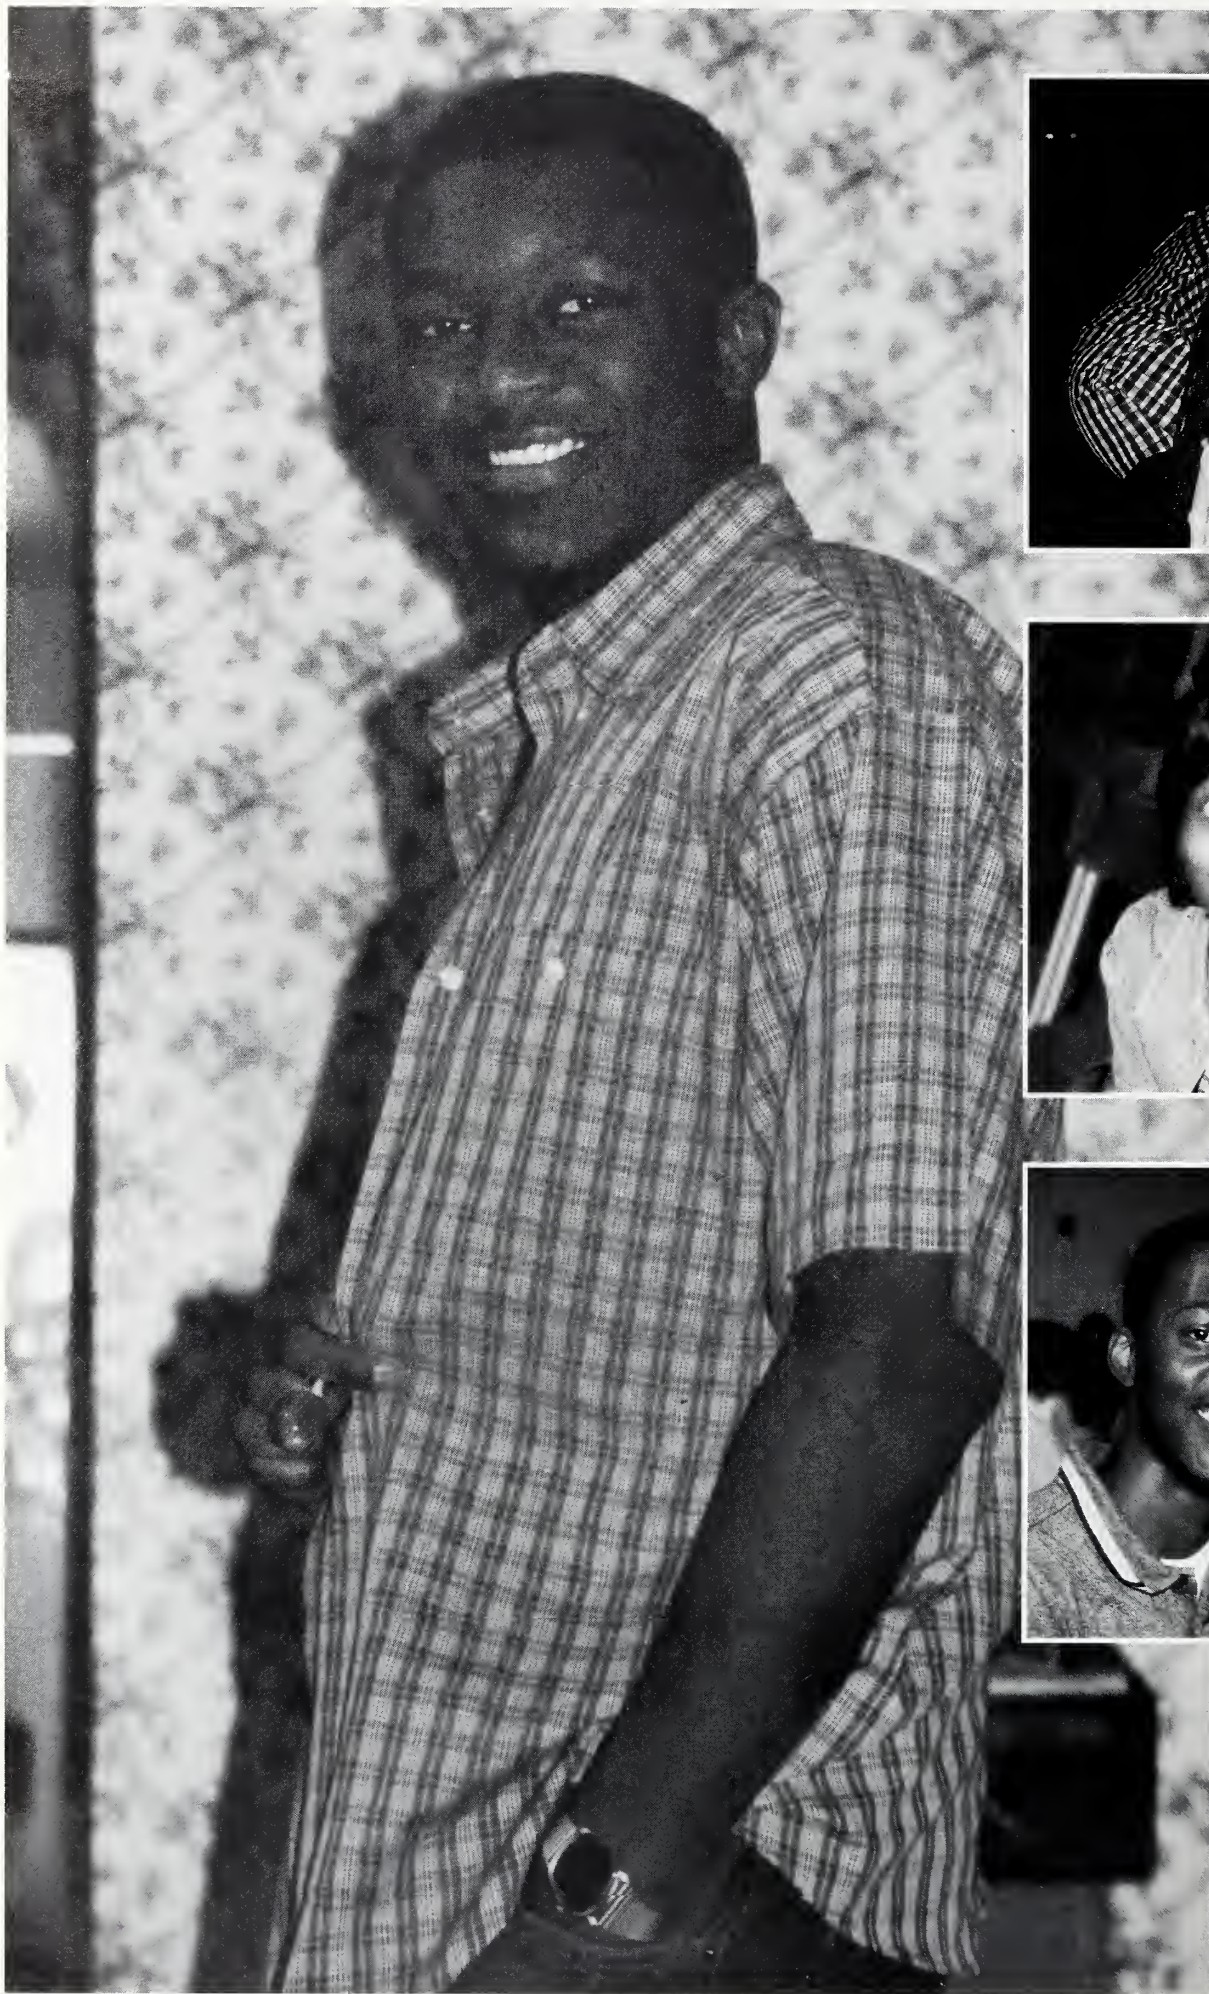

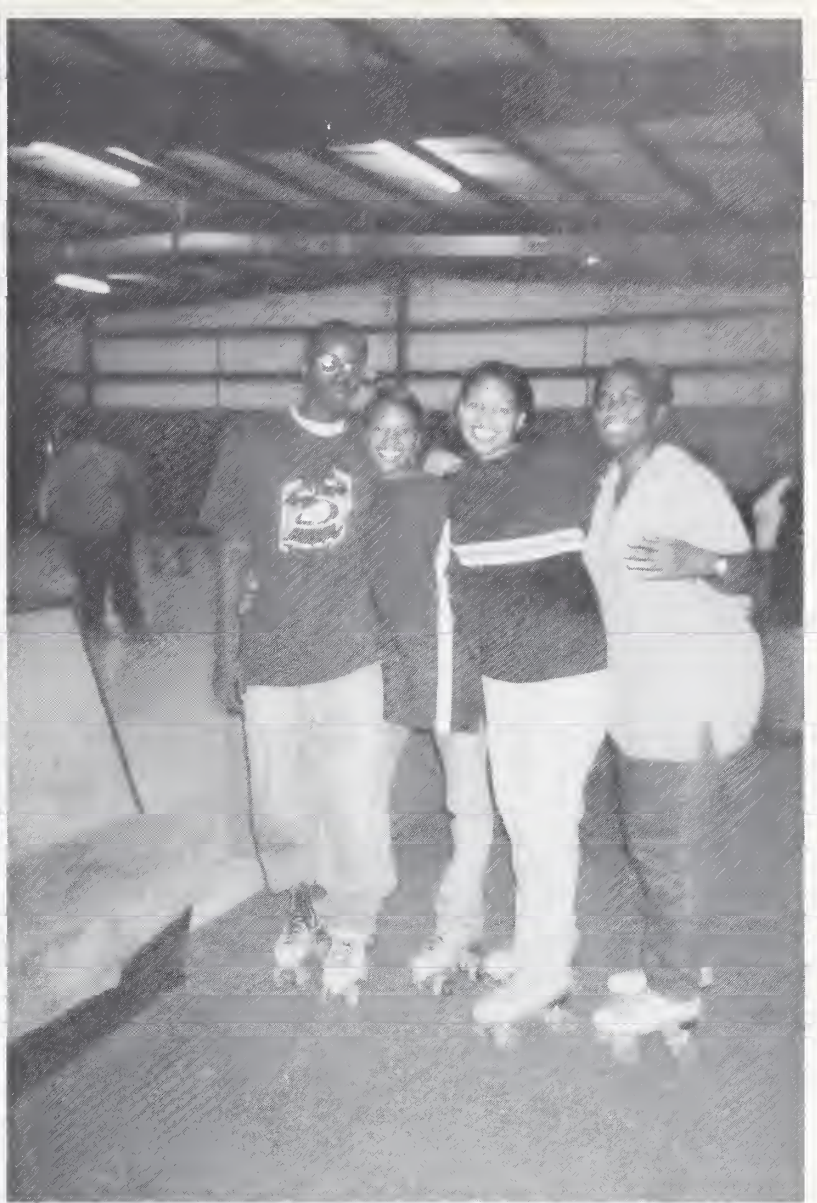

Who R U?

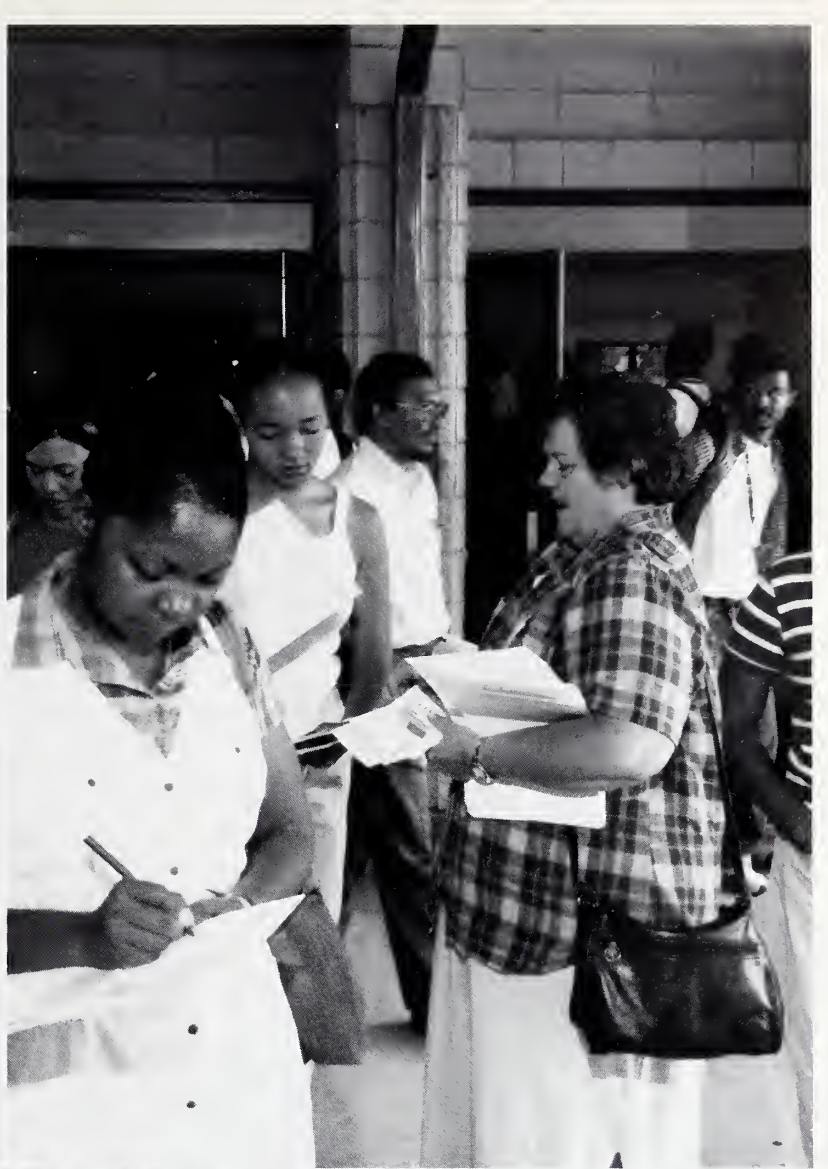

Left: This freshman pleads to everyone to please write their name legibly, when they take their pictures.

OAKWOOD STUDENTS ATTEND LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

LEADING BY EXAMPLE

Facilitators worked very closely with the students during the workshop. They helped the students learn what it really takes to be a true leader. The students were very attentive and worked dilligently to learn all that they could during the time they were allowed.

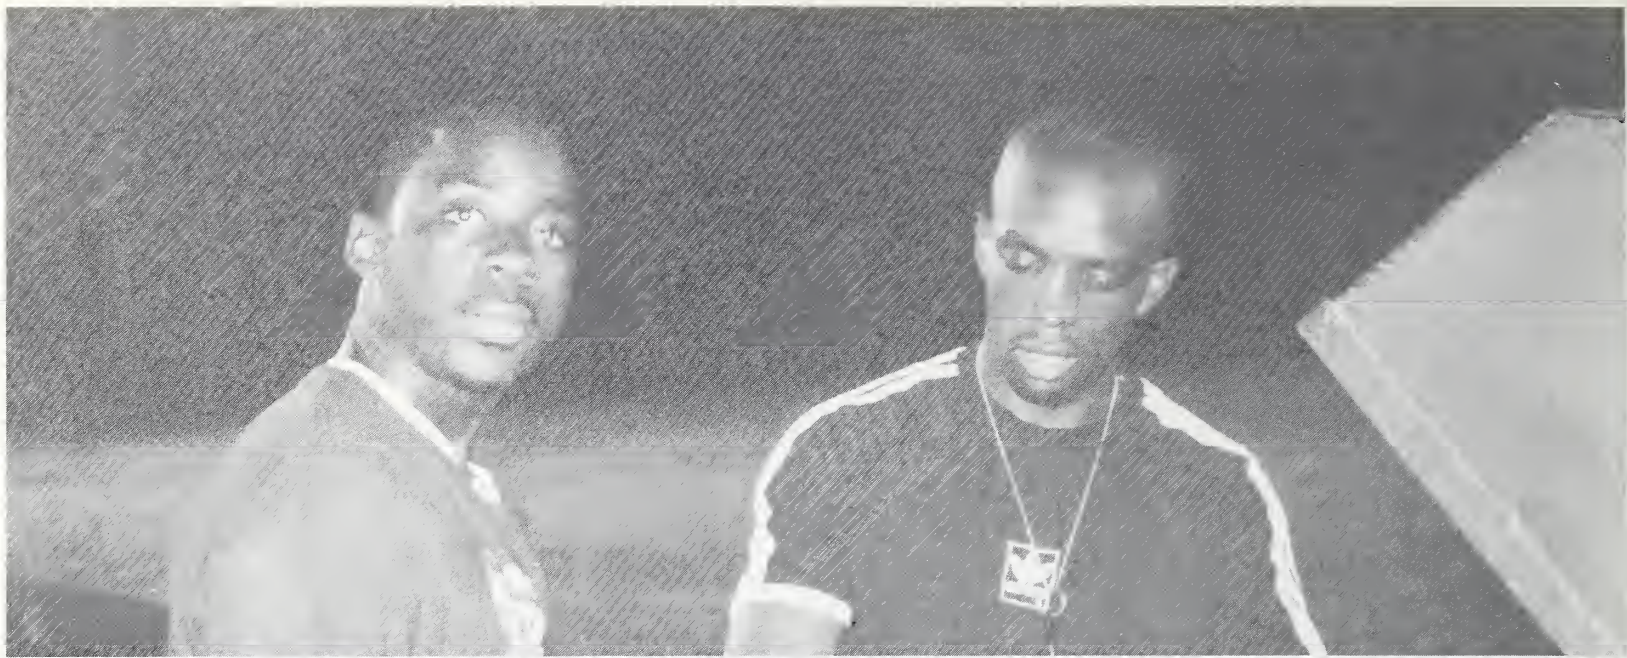

Some students, like Camille, were active participants in the workshop. Others like Andrea seemed bored. While others like Mark simply stood by and watched. Everyone should be more like Camille.

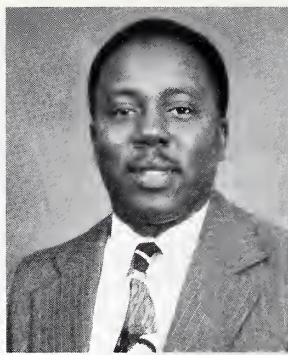

WHAT DID THEY REALLY LEARN???

USM Senate and Cabinet Consecration

Chaplain Medley leads us in prayer.

The Senators take the stand of dedication and Consecration.

Debleaire and Myron take the oath to become our student body leaders.

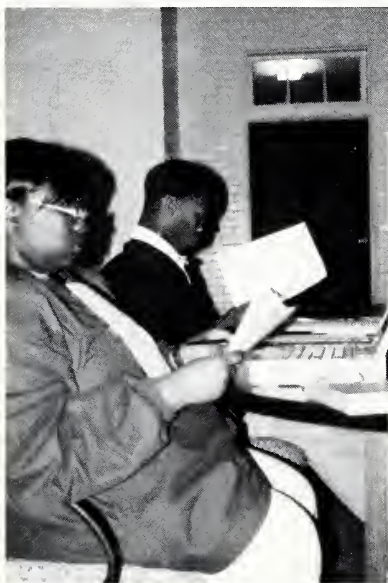

The Executive Cabinet also took the oath to represent the students. They are accompanied by their sponsor Keslyn Brade.

WELCOME TO THE SENATE

Ladies and Gentleman the President of the Senate. The Notebook so graciously supplied by Oakwood. HA?!

Myron and Nulma pour over documents for the senate impeachment hearings. Sorry, I meant the budget?! I don't know.

This is soo much fun. Can't wait till next Monday. The joys of representing my peoples.

Mmmmm! That is sooo deep.
We've got a surplus from the budget and we're not in debt?

Now that's what I'm talkin about!
No curfew, co-ed dorms, and
Taco Bell catering in the cafe.
Man I've got to stop daydreaming!

Are ya'll listening to me? If not I'm going home. Right
Nulma?

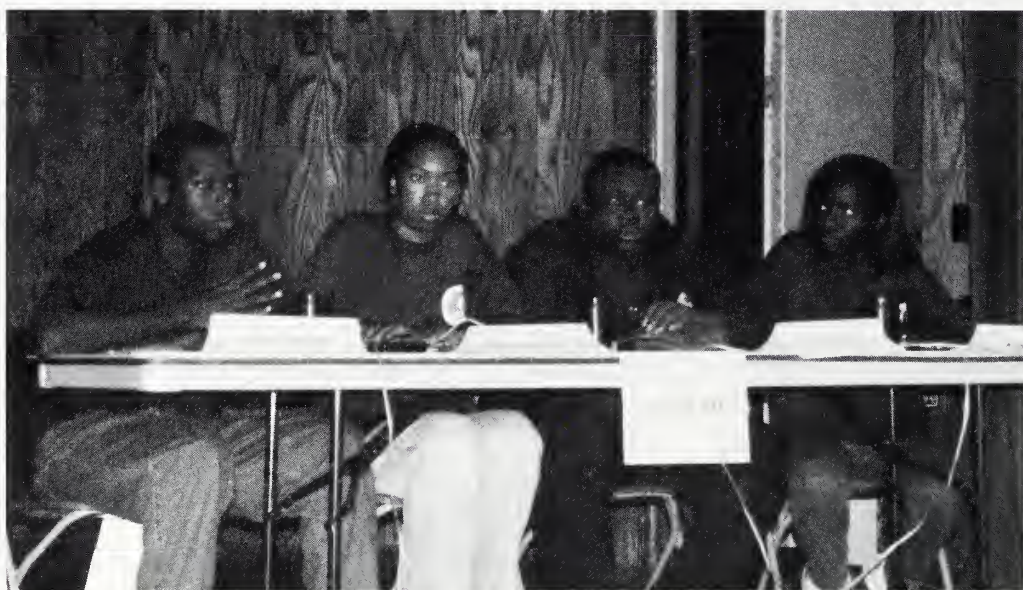

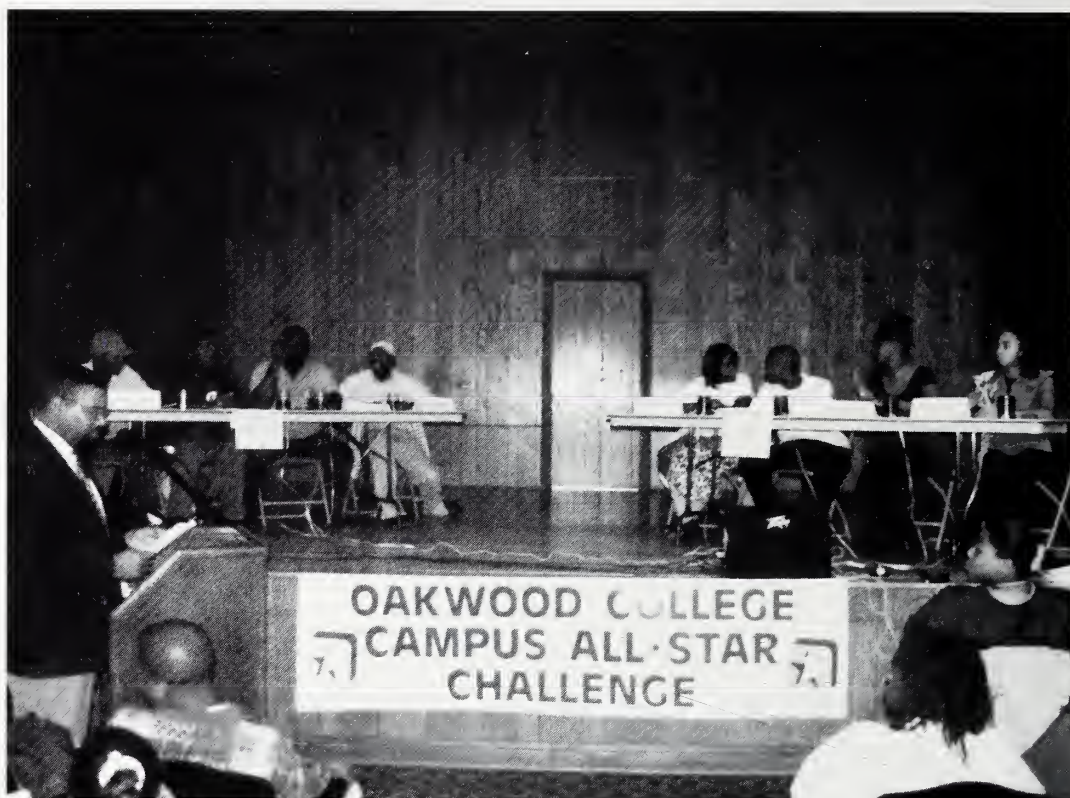

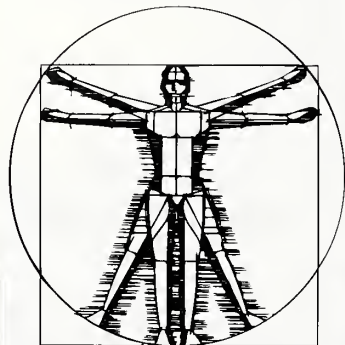

The Oakwood College Allstar Bowl highlighted the vast knowledge of the Oakwood Students vs. A&M.

COLLEGE BOWL

Battle of the Wits

Don't they look so confident! I bet they watched Jeopardy everyday.

Dr. Burton could you give us that question with a small hint. Thanks!

A&M students diligently try to get themselves together. Funny they ended up winning.

Ya'll aren't that smart so stop looking over here!

Now don't try to put blame on the mic. Admit you just don't know the answer.!

THE AMAZING GRACE REVIVAL

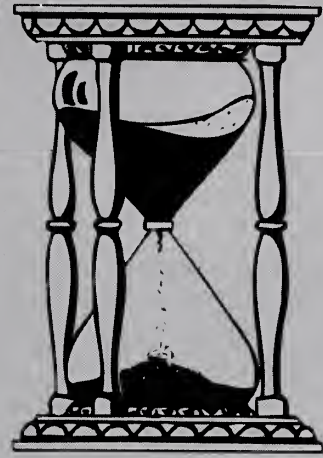

THE TIME

Over 70 souls were claimed for Jesus in baptism.

IS NOW...

"Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst for righteousness: for they shall be filled." Matthew 5:6

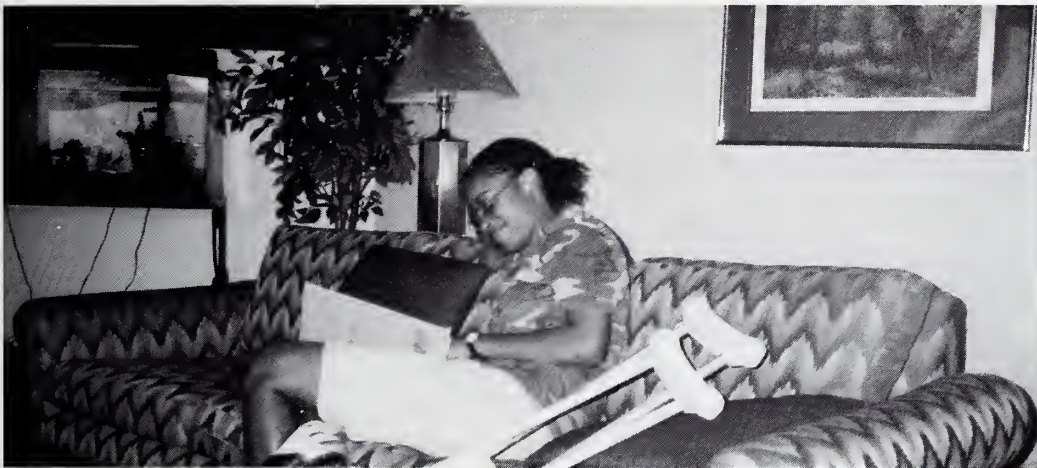

AMAZING GRACE

Pastor Nixon and Oakwood College Church embarrassed Satan by indulging in prayer for the entire month of October. As a result, souls came to know the sweet name of Jesus.

Men's Retreat

Entitled the "Gathering of Men," the 1998 Men's Retreat brought together the men of Oakwood who were looking for a closer walk with the Lord. Pastors Doggette, West and Medley spoke on topics such as "Christian Men and their Sexuality," "Men as the Priests of the Home," and "Christian Men in Society." The men were challenged to become stalwart servants for Christ and to be faithful Christians. Those who attended came away with something to be remembered.

Michael Green was an active participant.

Good old-fashioned male spiritual bonding.

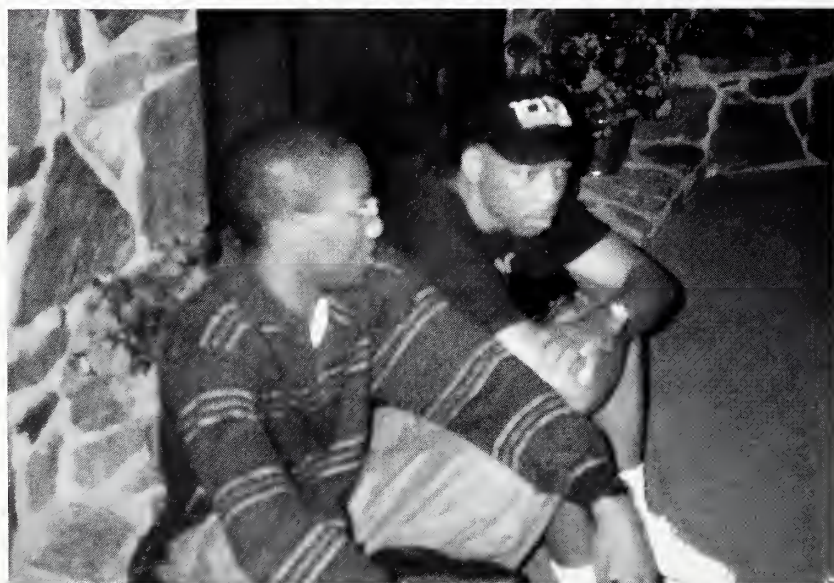

The various speakers included...
Chaplain Medley, Eric Thomas,
Mason West, and Pastor
Doggette.

Oakwood Orchestra

The Oakwood College Orchestra is one of the many ways for students to show their musical talents. Under the leadership of Dr. Renee Collins, the orchestra has provided the campus with many wonderful performances. Here are some of the students performing at the Oakwood College Church.

Mir Miss Oakwood

1998

"There can be miracles when you believe" and Oakwood College students, faculty, and staff were believing in eight true Oakwoodite women as they participated in the eighth annual Ms. Oakwood Pageant. As the lights were dimmed and the soloists sang, the audience waited in anticipation as the ladies took the stage with their dazzling choreography. Representing their hometowns, the ladies electrified the audience and judges with their stage presence and poise. The talent segment of the program by far was the most diverse of other pageants. The acts ranged from karate, floor tumbling, to opera. The miracles began to show themselves as the ladies took their final walks during the evening gown segment.

It has often been said that you can only appreciate the world around you by understanding the miracle within yourself, and from the performances that evening, Adrienne, Chelise, Deia, Alietha, Akunna, Camille, Andrea, and Vivian see the world in a whole new paradigm.
